Subject: Information on your surfing holiday at the Camino Surf Camp in Valdoviño, Galicia

Hello,

We are happy to have you with us this year at the Camino Surf Camp in Valdoviño, Galicia. For your arrival and your stay, we have put together some important information to allow for an easy start in your holiday. To get into vacation-mood, you can find a short Camino-Video from our spot here in Galicia:

<https://youtu.be/EAGnce-VD6s>

What is important for Surfing?

A major requirement is that everybody is in general good health, i.e. that none of you suffers from serious injuries or illnesses that could prevent you from surfing.

Is it your first time surfing or have you been surfing before?

In any case, to get out the most of your surfing vacation, some preparation won't do you any harm: While surfing, some muscles are strained more than usual - especially in the upper-arm and shoulder area. If you find some time to prepare yourself, you will harvest the benefits later on. For a perfect start it's sufficient to go swimming a few times (crawl is better than breaststrokes in this case) and do some pushups. The more power you got, the more fun you'll have! Check out our short surf-fitness video here:

<http://vimeo.com/caminosurf/surf-fitness-training>

What are you supposed to bring along?

If you are accommodated in one of our roomy cotton-tents or in the glamping-temple, we recommend you to bring along a sleeping bag – on request, the latter can be rented out on site. The tents are equipped with Mattresses, pillows and sheets. If you opt for borrowing one of our sleeping bags, please make sure to give us a notice in advance, so we can arrange everything for you. However, in case you stay in one of our apartments, bungalows or in the Surf-Villa, there's no need to worry about those things. These accommodations are fully equipped with sheets, blankets and pillows.

In any case, please do not forget to bring towels, sunscreen as well as some warm clothes. Although it is usually pleasantly warm here in Valdoviño, you might be happy about a warm sweater and a windbreaker after the Surf-Sessions. As the weather can be unsettled, to bring some weather-proof clothes is not a bad idea.

Advice: In case you are flying with IBERIA via Madrid or Barcelona, we strongly recommend to pack into your hand-luggage the most important things for 1-2 days (toothbrush, underwear, 1-2 t-shirts, swim-suit/boardshorts). Unfortunately it happened some times that the luggage did not make the transfer in Madrid/Barcelona and then it takes 1-2 days until IBERIA is bringing the luggage to the camp. So better be safe than sorry (o:

How will you get to the Camp?

If you want us to pick you up from the airport, please let us know at least two weeks in advance. We need to know the date, time and airport where you arrive. Ideally, you also attach the flight-number, so we can find you more easily. Find more information on arrival here: <http://valdovino.caminosurf.com/en/transports.html>

As a GPS-driver, let the GPS-device guide you to the following spatial data (different formats for different devices):

- Degree, min, sec.: $43^{\circ} 36' 43.3728'' N$ $8^{\circ} 8' 58.5672'' W$

<http://maps.me/es/home> – this makes your smartphone an offline GPS-device (no Internet fees!).

As an Old-School Navigator you should be on the lookout for the following points on your route:

- In Spain you head via Burgos and Leon in the direction of A Coruña
- On the A6 motorway you pass Ponferrada and Lugo till exit Nr. 522A
- There you change onto highway A8, heading towards Vilalba, Ferrol, Oviedo
- Next on the AG-64 towards Ferrol. Look out for Exit Nr. 6 – just shortly before Ferrol
- At the roundabout, take the road towards Valdoviño (CP-5404)
- Once arrived in Valdoviño, take the third exit in the roundabout, heading towards the beach
- About 300m off the beach on the right hand side you'll find the Camino Surf Camp.

What else is important?

Please bring your invoice – that will ease the comparison of your bookings on site (if you have it on your smartphone that's ok – no print-out needed!). If you have not yet paid the full amount of the invoice and if it is not possible to do so before your arrival, please make sure to bring the outstanding amount in Cash – this has to be paid no later than the day of your arrival. Unfortunately, we cannot accept any credit-cards or cheques on site. There are two ATMs within 10min walking distance from the camp.

If available, please bring along a USB flash drive with about 20 GB free memory to copy all the pictures and videos taken throughout the week. And if you have a good book which you want to share with others – bring it along and enhance our Camino-library.

The Camp, Valdoviño and Ferrolterra

When arriving in the camp, we'll do a first round with you to show you where to find everything in the camp so you can feel at home immediately. In case you want to get some more detailed infos on the area upfront, we attach three maps and some text-details on the camp, the closer proximity (Valdoviño) and the wider area (Ferrolterra).

If you still have some open questions about your stay at the Camino Surf Camp, feel free to drop us a line to office@caminosurf.com or call us/whatsapp us at +34 693 498 929. You can also send us your number and a time – then we will call you back.
